

Take No Thought

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? –Matthew 6:26

You rarely see a hungry bird, or a bird with no feathers, or a bird with no tree to sleep in. Birds never sow, reap, or gather into barns. All they have is what they need at the moment. Our heavenly Father takes care of them on a daily basis.

He has an even greater plan than that for us. He doesn't just take care of us on a day-to-day basis. He is Jehovah-Jireh, the God of more than enough. He gives us the ability to plant, to harvest, and to gather the abundance into the storehouse (Malachi 3:10).

Your abundance belongs in the storehouse that God has provided—the Church. Bring your abundance into the place where God has put His name. Stop acting like a bird. Start sowing, reaping, and gathering into the storehouse so the gospel of Jesus Christ may be preached in all the earth.

Jesus, use me to teach and preach the gospel throughout the world through my giving to the work of Your kingdom. Amen.
