

Ted Cruz Releases List of Oklahoma Endorsements Ahead of Super Tuesday I

Monday night, the Ted Cruz presidential campaign released a new list of Oklahoma elected officials who have endorsed the Texas senator, building on its list of endorsements from major Oklahoma legislative leaders.

The new elected officials joining his Sooner State leadership team are:

- Insurance Commissioner John Doak
- Cathy Costello, widow of former Commissioner of Labor Mark Costello
- State Senator. Joseph Silk, District 5
- Rep. Jeff Coody, District 63
- Rep. George Faught, District 14
- Rep. James Leewright, District 29
- Rep. Lewis Moore, District 96
- Rep. Jason Murphey, District 31
- Rep. Tom Newell, District 28
- Rep. Charles Ortega, District 52
- Rep. Mike Ritze, District 80
- Rep. Sean Roberts, District 36
- Rep. Todd Russ, District 55
- Former Rep. Rex Duncan, District Attorney, Osage & Pawnee Counties
- Jason Hicks, district attorney, Caddo Grady, Jefferson, & Stephens Counties

“This impressive list of conservative leaders supporting Ted Cruz’s campaign shows his strong support across our state,” said Cruz for President Oklahoma Chairman Congressman Jim Bridenstine. “Oklahomans are tired of leaders of both parties in Washington making deals at the expense of the American people. Ted Cruz is the leader we can trust to do what he says he'll do and stand up for us against the Washington Cartel."
