

Teen Magazine Brazenly Promotes Abortion and Prostitution to Young Women

Rather than writing headlines, Teen Vogue magazine is making them.

First, points out national radio host Dr. Michael Brown, author of the soon-to-be-released book, Jezebel's War with America: The Plot to Destroy Our Country and What We Can Do to Turn the Tide, the magazine geared toward girls, teens and young women published an article titled, "Why Sex Work Is Real Work," comparing "selling your body for cash to the practice of medicine—just another profession, just another choice," according to USA Today.

Then, a June Teen Vogue response to a letter in an advice column about "How to Get an Abortion If You're a Teen" included these words: "(I)t's only logical that if teens are mature enough to become parents, they are mature enough to decide whether or not they want to give birth. Having access to abortion should be your right, regardless of your parents' beliefs." The writer even went on to "talk logistics."

"These two brazen articles geared toward young women should serve as substantial evidence that our culture has fallen so far that telling girls that working as a prostitute or having an abortion without parental knowledge is not only accepted—but should be celebrated!" Brown said. "If we don't think there is an evil spirit after the hearts and minds of our young women, we are fooling ourselves."

That evil intention, Brown says, is a manifestation of the spirit of Jezebel—the most wicked woman in the Bible. And even though she lived thousands of years ago, her spirit is alive and well today.

Brown details how Jezebel's spirit is attacking life, leadership and faith in his new book, Jezebel's War with America. Out Aug. 6, Brown's newest book focuses on the fact that the spirit of the biblical figure Jezebel is at work today, through radical feminism coupled with the extreme pro-abortion movement, along with other spiritual and cultural forces in an attempt to destroy America. Brown's eye-opening book not only unveils a satanic plot, beginning with an all-out assault on the church, but it will equip every believer with tools to defeat the enemy in their own personal lives as well as in the nation.

"Promoting sex work to teens and young women should be called what it truly is—human trafficking," Brown asks. "Human traffickers lure young women into sex work then trap them in horrible conditions. It is estimated that worldwide roughly 1 million children are sold into sex slavery or forced labor every year, including 40,000 per year in the U.S.—or 109 children per day. What makes this even worse is that these estimates may be low. The sexual exploitation of children is surely one of the vilest sins on the planet."

Dr. Michael L. Brown is founder and president of AskDrBrown Ministries and president of FIRE School of Ministry. The author of more than 35 books, including Saving a Sick America (2017), he is also the host of the nationally syndicated daily talk radio show "The Line of Fire," as well as the host of shows on GOD TV, NRBTv and METV. His syndicated columns appear on many leading websites, and his scholarly publications range from biblical commentaries to articles in Semitic journals and theological dictionaries. He has served as an adjunct or visiting professor at seven leading seminaries and has debated gay activists, agnostic professors and Orthodox rabbis on university campuses.

Jezebel's War With America by Dr. Michael L. Brown will be released Aug. 6 by FrontLine, an imprint of Charisma House, which publishes books that challenge, encourage, teach and equip Christians.
