

The Art Of Mentoring

✖ Exactly how do you raise up successful leaders? Former Hillsong worship leader and church co-pastor Darlene Zschech believes you should downplay failures while praising successes. This belief in others has enabled her to develop gifted, young musicians into great worship leaders whose songs you likely sing on Sunday mornings. Zschech teaches the “why” behind the “what” in training others to lead in her new book The Art of Mentoring: Embracing the Great Generational Transition.
