

The Bible Comes Alive With Online Biblical Hebrew Course

The language spoken by Christ, David and the prophets of old (ancient Hebrew) is now available to anyone with a computer and high-speed Internet access. This online language program, accredited by the prestigious Hebrew University in Israel, is available on e-Teacher Group's website, . It is designed for people who want to have a better understanding of the Bible and biblical text of the Old Testament.

The

program includes weekly, live, online "meetings" in small groups of seven to eight students, and homework assignments that are sent by the teacher after each lesson. The curriculum consists of five levels with each composed of students only in that level.

The five divisions range from beginners, with no prior experience with Hebrew, to highly advanced students.

The course focuses on reading the Hebrew Bible in its original language.

In the process, students gain a comprehensive understanding of the language, including grammar, syntax and vocabulary. At the more advanced levels, the course deals with different textual and diachronic perspectives, and delves into a wider range of biblical texts, including poetry, prophecy and wisdom literature.

Hebrew University

Since

January 2010, the biblical Hebrew online program is part of the Hebrew University's accredited courses and is fully recognized by the faculty of humanities. In accordance with the university's academic requirements, the program awards students four credit points.

To

date, eTeacher is the only e-learning company providing the Hebrew University with live online courses for its students. This is especially noteworthy due to the fact that the 91-year-old Hebrew University and its faculty of humanities are listed among the top 100 universities in the world.

Hebrew language

is an ancient and fascinating language with a rich history and meaning that goes beyond translation into any other language. Biblical Hebrew courses enable students to read the Bible firsthand in the language it was written. This eTeacher course has a number of unique advantages for those involved in Bible study. It gives students:

- Comprehension of the Hebrew Bible and the meaning of the original text without translation
- Understanding about how God is revealed in the biblical text

- Education on the Jewish roots of the Christian faith and exploring the original Hebrew mindset in which Christianity began
- Appreciation for biblical wordplays, double meanings, meaning of names and more
- Immersion in actual biblical texts selected both for their value as exemplars of the language and their intrinsic interest
- Explanation on the cultural and historical settings of biblical texts
- Learning grammatical topics within the framework of famous biblical stories
- Growth of a unique vocabulary in prayer (some call Hebrew “God’s own language”)
- Comfortable reading Hebrew texts and being able to tackle new biblical passages
