

The Biggest Hindrance to the Great Reset and the Demonic Globalist Agenda

Satanically inspired, self-proclaimed atheists are working feverishly toward the establishment of a one-world government—a technocratic take-over of all nations through globalist organizations like the World Health Organization (WHO) and the World Economic Forum (WEF).

It is common knowledge that they intend to implement “the Great Reset” by 2030—which would transition the world into a digital money system capable of tracking and controlling every human being. It is also evident to many knowledgeable persons, that the COVID crisis was engineered and radicalized to help push this agenda forward.

If this globalist agenda succeeds, it will serve not only to marginalize some of the fundamental principles true Christians uphold but criminalize them—worldwide. So, we must not be oblivious to this threat.

We are on the cusp of a new age—but not the one they envision. It is the Kingdom Age that will be preceded by the evil machinations of Satan’s last-ditch effort to maintain his control in this realm.

Even though certain mind-boggling developments are inevitable in this world, throwing in the towel is not an option. We must hold the enemy at bay as long as possible, taking a diligent and passionate stand for truth. God’s primary hope, to provide effective “pushback” against this evil agenda, is an on-fire, passionate, prayerful and revived church, focused on winning the lost—no matter what the cost, and going after God until supernatural breakthrough overflows.

The globalists have absolutely no defense against a tsunami wave of a spiritual awakening crashing over all nations. That is truly an uncontrollable phenomenon when it happens. The Almighty God has done it before; He can certainly do it again!

Spiritual War on a Global Scale

Yes, we truly are engaged in a spiritual war on a global scale. If we are to win, we must seize, more than ever before, the mindset that Paul described to his pastor/protégé Timothy:

“You therefore must endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (2 Timothy 2:3, NKJV).

Pause a moment and prayerfully ponder whether you are fulfilling this divine mandate. Good soldiers are models of courage, obedience, commitment, sacrifice and selflessness. They are resolute: willing to lay down their lives for causes that are far bigger than their own personal needs being met. A supernaturally endowed prototype from the past is youthful David coming up to the camp of Israel as they were being taunted daily by the Philistines and their champion, Goliath.

David cried out, “Is there not a cause?” and ran into the battle. Against impossible odds, he won. His soldier cry, his clarion call, echoes still. And remember, he did not kill Goliath with a stone and sling; he killed him with his own sword.

In like manner, the internet is a sword that the enemy is brandishing against all humanity (no wonder it is called the worldwide web—a web is used to catch a prey). But simultaneously, God is using the internet very effectively to help bring in the final harvest. The enemy’s sword is once again being used against him.

The New World Order is increasingly manifesting an infrastructure worldwide that seems overwhelmingly unopposable. It is veritably a giant-sized Goliath striving to intimidate anyone resisting its agenda, especially the church of the living God. I heard with my own ears one of the chief spokespersons of the WEF, dubbed by some as their chosen “prophet,” claiming that they are working toward the transhumanistic evolution of the human race “by intelligent design, not the intelligent design of ‘some God’ above the clouds, but their intelligent design” (referring to scientific advances made in recent years in the area of sequencing and genetic manipulation). This is disturbing stuff—men playing God and thinking they are capable of doing so.

You may feel ineffective and vulnerable as the darkness looms larger, but you serve the God who declared a last day’s promise over Israel (and all God’s New Covenant people as a whole):

“The one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them” (Zechariah 12:8).

David was not a professional fighter, but he walked with God—and that made all the difference. A shepherd boy became a warrior in one day, with no training and no experience on the battlefield. In like manner, you may feel unqualified to crush the enemy within your sphere of influence, but if you walk with God—that’s the primary prerequisite. He will give you a strategy. He will equip you for the battle. And He will awaken within you the calling of being “a good soldier of Jesus Christ.”

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand” (Ephesians 6:10-13).

Surely, you hear the words rising in your heart right now:

“Is there not a cause?”
