The fourth season of "The Chosen" is set to be released in theaters on Feb. 1, 2024, before being made available on streaming platforms, including the free Chosen app. The series has been praised for its ability to draw viewers' interest in learning more about the Savior by cracking open their Bible and exploring the lives of Jesus' disciples.

Katherine Warnock, vice president of original content, emphasized the importance of the new special in reminding viewers of the meaning behind the Christmas season. She hopes that families, friends, and communities will gather to enjoy the special and reflect on the true meaning of the holiday.

The success of Christian media in 2023, as demonstrated by movies like "Jesus Revolution" and "Cast It Out," is a testament to the power of faith-based storytelling to inspire and uplift audiences. Don't miss this opportunity to celebrate the true meaning of Christmas with your loved ones.
