

'The Chosen' Producer Shares Her Unique Journey of Trusting God

One of the producers of The Chosen, Katherine Warnock, shares her powerful story on Live Your Best Life with Liz Wright. Be empowered to embrace your journey as you hear how the Lord led her on an unconventional path to get her to where she is today.

Looking back on her journey, Warnock can see how God was developing her character, sifting out shame and insecurity, so she would be able to enter Hollywood and be who He created her to be. Many times she questioned what was happening, as the Lord had her in various jobs and at different levels of responsibility. Her unique journey was not logical to the world but was crafted in His wisdom.

The Lord has taught Warnock how to release the presence of God into atmospheres that are the complete opposite! In the fashion and film industries, she has learned how to bring His kingdom, often without words, extending her spirit over people and rooms.

It is vital that we let go of our human understanding and let the Holy Spirit guide us in every area of our lives. We need to be open to Him asking us to do things differently or in ways that have never been done before. When we follow His voice, it has a ripple effect that displays His splendor to those around us. Warnock has seen this kind of walk lead many to Christ who would have previously never given Christianity a second thought!

When you allow the Lord to refine your identity and character in the seasons of wilderness, He will elevate you to places of favor and privilege beyond your imagination. Warnock's inspiring story will inspire you to trust the Lord throughout the journey and walk in His authority no matter where you are.
