Season five of "The Chosen" is set to detail what Holy Week would've been like for Jesus and His disciples, including that of taking His Last Supper meal. As Dallas Jenkins previously told Charisma Media in an exclusive interview, this season explores a side of Jesus the show has yet to uncover.

“This is the biggest season we’ve ever done by far and that’s because the story demands it,” Jenkins says. “You’ve never seen this side of Jesus before.”

Part two of season five is slated to be in theaters this coming Friday, Apr. 4.
