

'The Dragon's Prophecy': End-Times Mystery Perfected?

Is there more to our world than we see with our eyes? Another realm? Unseen forces shaping our world at this very moment?

Is there an ancient vision that unlocks what is truly happening to our world right now, and what is yet to transpire?

Are we witnessing the unfolding of a war that began long before any of us came into the world, a war that involves each of us—in which each of us is targeted? And did a 3,000-year-old mystery actually foretell the invasion of Israel by Hamas down to the year—and even the exact date?

A Prophetic Mystery

It was a Friday night. I was speaking at Beth Israel, the congregation I lead in Wayne, New Jersey. God led me to speak of a mystery that went back to Mount Sinai. According to the mystery, there would be an invasion of the nation of Israel—in the year 2023. The invasion would take Israel by surprise. The invasion would take place on the Jewish day of rest, the Sabbath. The invasion would also take place on a Hebrew holy day, on the sacred moedeem of God, as stated in Leviticus 23. The invaders would strike the land in the month of October, specifically on the first Saturday of October of 2023.

The Coming to Pass

It would come to pass across the world the very next day, Oct. 7, 2023, with the invasion of Hamas into Israel, on the Sabbath day, a Hebrew holy day from Leviticus, and on the first Saturday of October, 2023. Behind the event that shocked the world was an ancient mystery that goes back to the sands of Mesopotamia, the tent of Abraham and beyond, even to the dawn of creation. It would lead to my newest book, “The Dragon’s Prophecy: Israel, the Dark Resurrection, and the End of Days.” It contains the mystery that may enable us to know future events and when exactly they will take place.

The First Book I’ve Ever Written That ...

... I didn’t plan on writing. I had intended to write the sequel to “The Return of the Gods.” And I know I am still to write that book. But I was interrupted. I was interrupted by the Lord’s leading that I must write “The Dragon’s Prophecy.” The book is, in many ways, unique. It is the first book I’ve ever written that specifically opens up the mysteries of the “last days,” the “end of days.” It is also unique in that while I was writing it, what I was writing about kept coming true in the world forcing me to continually rewrite and update it! And finally, it is unique in that I’ve never witnessed so much opposition, so much spiritual warfare, over a book I was writing, from the time I began writing it.

As I wrote about the dragon’s flood launched against Israel in the book of Revelation, a literal flood came against the building of my congregation, Beth Israel. And then another, and another. Then thieves broke into our building. Then all communications were cut off; bank accounts hacked into; phone lines dead and much more! But that’s all a good sign. If the enemy doesn’t want a book to come out, or a message or revelation to go forth—it means God all the more does!

The Dragon's War

The dragon is a symbol of the enemy, the fallen and twisted angelic being that wars against the purposes of God. It appears in the vision of Revelation 12. A woman also appears in the vision. She is a symbol of the nation of Israel, called into being to bring God's purposes into the world, His Word, His ways, His Messiah and ultimately His kingdom. This is the revelation of the enemy's war against the children of Israel. And so it's no accident that the Jewish people are the most warred against, persecuted, vilified and hated people in the history of the world. It's not natural, it's supernatural. Antisemitism does not begin with a man but with an angel. That's why it never dies but rises up in every age, from generation to generation.

The Dark Resurrection

The Bible foretells that in the "last days," God will gather the Jewish people back to their homeland and resurrect the ancient nation of Israel. That resurrection will bring the war of the dragon against the Jewish people to a new level, and will also bring the entire world against the nation of Israel.

The enemy is a mimic. He imitates the works of God. So if God were to resurrect His ancient nation back into the modern world—would not the enemy seek to do likewise, to bring about his own resurrection, to resurrect an ancient people, an ancient enemy of Israel to war against the resurrected nation of Israel?

He would, and in fact, he already has. One of the mysteries revealed in “The Dragon’s Prophecy” is that what took place on Oct. 7 is part of the resurrection of an ancient people, ancient enemies of Israel. The resurrection involved exact names, exact places, exact strategies and exact events. Even the exact strip of land involved in the attack was identified in Scripture thousands of years before it happened.

The Role of Adolf Hitler in Recent Events

Another mystery in “The Dragon’s Prophecy” concerns the involvement of Adolf Hitler—in recent events! Though it may be hard to fathom, without Hitler, Oct. 7 would never have taken place. Without Hitler, Hamas would never have been born. You see, Hitler had put his associate Heinrich Himmler in charge of the Holocaust. Himmler was put in charge of the Nazi’s conquered peoples in the autumn of 1939 and thus in position to begin the Holocaust. The date was Oct. 7. Himmler, this murderer of countless Jewish lives, was born on Oct. 7. Though it is hard to fathom, Hitler was also behind an event that hit even closer to home—9/11!

The Mystery of the Jubilee

God gave the Jubilee to Israel as a time of restoration and joy. Every 50th year, on the Jubilee, if you were in bondage, you would be set free. If you had lost your land, you would return to it. It is a mystery that the restoration of Israel, the return of the Jewish people to the land they had lost, took place according to the mystery of the Jubilee.

It all began in 1867 when the issuing of a decree that enabled the land of Israel to be repurchased by the Jewish people. Fifty years, one Jubilee, later, in 1917, the Balfour Declaration that promised the land of Israel as a refuge for the Jewish people was issued. That same year, the four centuries of Ottoman Turkish rule over the land came to an end.

Fifty years later, in 1967, the next Jubilee came, or the next restoration. In June of that year, the Six-Day War broke out. On the third day of that war, for the first time in 2,000 years, Jewish soldiers entered the gates of their holy city, and Jerusalem was at last restored to the Jewish people.
