

The Father's Coverage or Media Coverage?

Please note: The views and opinions expressed within this article are those of the respective author and do not necessarily reflect those of Charisma Media.

There was an old-time expression used when a waiter bought you a drink. He would tell you not to worry about paying for it: "It was on the arm." Your drinks or meal was free. On another occasion, someone would say to you, "Don't worry. I have you covered." That is such a good feeling. The word "covering" means to put something on top of or in front of something (or someone) in order to protect or conceal it. It is always in the Father's heart to protect us, His children.

We live in a world of constant distraction. The media is full of distractions. The news cycle takes the eyeballs of the viewers from one distraction to another, every time pelting us with worry, anxiety and fear. Do you see what is happening in Afghanistan? Don't look at the audit being released in Arizona! Don't look at the man behind the curtain for those of you who remember the movie The Wizard of Oz, where the man behind the curtain was manipulating the scenes in front of you.

News stories are manufactured for the purpose of manipulating people's minds, programming us to react in certain ways by instilling fear in us. The coronavirus is going to kill you! See all the deaths! Put on a mask, social distance and, by all means, whatever you do, make sure you take the vaccine. Take two masks and three vaccines because you will need the boosters. Not interested? Well then, we will mandate the vaccines and drive you to take it. Once this is done, we will give you a vaccine passport so we can control the way you live and spend money. Not to worry, you don't have to file your income taxes; we will just take it from you. By the way, we will tell you how much to eat and how far you can travel and where to go and what to say. You don't even have to think about what you are going to say or think; we will do it for you. Sound like tyranny? That's what the cabalists through the Deep State and the totalitarian governments under satanic dominion are dishing out.

Where can you go? Where can you hide? How do you protect yourself from such an onslaught? Well, the answer lies in the Word as anything that means anything does. Come to the Father! In the Father's heart, you will always find three things: protection, provision and truth. As the Word says: God is Love. He doesn't just love; it's His very being.

The Father offers us a "covering." His covering becomes real to you when you connect with Him. When you find yourself in His covering, you are no longer afraid. You don't need to run. You simply speak out. That's right: Use your tongue! Speak out words of truth from His Word: it will change the atmosphere around you! Listen to the sound of the next great awakening! It's coming from the rural areas, into the towns, into the suburbs, into the cities from the outside in. The Spirit of God shall break out! You can be a part of this happening.

Fear not! He has your back. He is El Shaddai. No weapon formed against you can prosper. Get to know Him and His love for you, and you will realize everything will be all right. The enemy will no longer be able to use the fear of death to put you into bondage (Heb. 2:14-15). You shall be free. Whom the Son sets free is free indeed. You shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free! (John 8:32) Come join the remnant; the whole world is groaning, waiting to see the revelation of the sons of God (Rom. 8: 19). The sons (and daughters) have discovered the covering.
