

The Future According to Deuteronomy 28

The modern take on the end-time prophecy laid out in Deuteronomy 28 is that our enemies will attack us by air, Pastor Jim Bakker says.

Though verse 49 offers details on eagle, Bakker believes that represents an airplane. He says he had a dream with similar circumstances.

“Our people were being dominated by people from another land that spoke other languages,” Bakker says. “That’s what the Lord showed me.”
