

The Harbinger for the Great Harvest of Souls

We are living in a time of tremendous tension. The battle between good and evil is reaching an all-time intensity. Discerning Christians sense it; even non-Christians are becoming aware of the pressure in the atmosphere. Everyone worldwide has been brought to the extreme edge where we know something is about to happen, because the pressure is just too great and simply cannot continue without something breaking.

I believe God is about to act in a manner where there will be no question it is God. Not man. Not Satan. God, and only God. His intervention will produce exponential results for days, weeks and months to come.

Those who have rejected God will be utterly shocked to their core. Those who have been on the fence about God will fall to their knees in submission. Those who have been devoted to God will rejoice as the world experiences God's glory. All the people of the earth will see God administer His justice consistent with Read More . . . {eoa}
