

The Harris-Walz Agenda: Abortion Extremism

Data from Minnesota Gov. Tim Walz's Minnesota Department of Health reveal that doctors in that state have been leaving babies to die after botched abortions for years.

The attending physicians or professional staff reportedly take no measures to preserve the health and life of living babies born during abortion procedures. Under Walz's callous prodding, no longer are records of live births at abortions required or kept.

Abortion Extremism

During the recent Trump-Harris presidential debate, Former President Donald Trump said that Vice President Kamala Harris' "vice presidential pick says abortion in the ninth month is absolutely fine. He also says execution after birth—it's execution, no longer abortion because the baby is born, is OK, and that's not OK with me."

The female moderator, ABC's Linsey Davis, quickly "fact-checked" Trump's statement, saying, "There is no state in this country where it is legal to kill a baby after it's born."

Former President Trump ought to have responded with the eight states and the District of Columbia that allow abortion through the ninth month of gestation. All but two proudly do so without exceptions: Alaska, California, Colorado, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, Oregon, Vermont and Washington, D.C.
