

The King and His Kingdom

All of us go through the storms of life, but there is only one way to remain unshaken by our circumstances. The Word of God tells us that everything in this world that can be shaken will be shaken, but we have a kingdom that is unshakeable (see Heb. 12).

In this powerful new episode of Truth Talks on Charisma Podcast Network, Pastor Ché Ahn opens up a new series focusing on the foundation of living a vibrant life of faith—knowing Jesus. Even though we are living in a time of global shaking, those who belong to Jesus can rest assured that our firm foundation will never be shaken.

In the New Testament, the four Gospels have many things in common, such as the emphasis on Jesus' teaching, miracles, death, resurrection and His deity. At the same time, each Gospel is characterized by a unique emphasis revealing who Jesus is.

Pastor Ché provides an insightful introduction to the Gospel of Matthew in this eye-opening message. In the book of Matthew, Jesus is presented as the Son of King David—thus as the King of Israel and the King over the nations. In short, Matthew is all about King Jesus and His kingdom.

Get ready for fresh revelation from Scripture as Pastor Ché highlights the ways you can know Jesus as King and embrace the reality of His kingdom today!
