

The Most Exciting Christian Movie You Will See All Year

One of the best Christian films of the year is about to hit theaters and is sure to blow away both unbelievers and believers alike.

The Case for Christ is “Great,” Movieguide® founder Ted Baehr says. “I didn’t expect it to be great. I thought it would be boring. Actually it’s a very powerful movie. It’s extremely well-acted, and it’s very well-written.”

The movie is based on the book by Lee Strobel, an award-winning journalist who set out to disprove Jesus. Instead, Strobel found his Savior.

The film’s in theaters April 7.

Take a look.
