

The Prayer Dare

✖ Ron Kincaid | Regal

Ron Kincaid, pastor of Sunset Presbyterian Church, not only challenges readers to commit to praying like never before, he also helps readers understand the benefit.

Kincaid is uniquely qualified to issue his 40-day prayer dare because he has kept a 30-year journal in which he's recorded more than 40,000 answers to specific prayers. He knows that when we pray God shows up.

Kincaid shares his journey and invites readers to discover a deeper relationship with God through prayer. He desires for each person to experience God's love and power through answered prayers.

In each chapter, Kincaid shares an example of answered prayer from his own life. Secondly, he examines Scripture and explores the foundational truths about prayer. Readers will have an opportunity to reflect and answer questions, making this an exceptional tool for personal study. Lastly, a prayer dare is issued and readers will be led to pray in a certain way. Each dare lays the foundation for making this essential practice part of everyday life.

Most believers know they should pray more. But sometimes knowing how to do that is not always easy. Kincaid takes the mystery out of the equation and offers practical guidance.

Readers will have a new appreciation for prayer, understand afresh its importance and have the confidence to make this a common practice in their life.
