

The Remedy For Obstacles

❌ Maintain a thankful heart at all times. Too many people spend their time criticizing, complaining and finding fault. Usually, these people miss the best things in life because of their negative outlook.

Find the one thing you can be thankful for in your difficult situation.

Are you thankful for the nation where you live?

Are you thankful for loved ones who believe in you when you don't believe in yourself?

Are you thankful for one more day of life so that you can make a difference in the world?

Are you thankful for the ability to find a way to overcome the obstacles you face?

Henry Ford encouraged his followers with this quote. "Don't find fault. Find a remedy."

He believed that a person has the ability to be a solution rather than merely complaining about the problem.

You can find a remedy to the obstacle standing in your way. Keep a thankful heart and discover the solution to your most pressing situation.
