

These Biblical Principles Helped One Woman Eliminate Over $35,000 of Debt in Under a Year

Money can be one of the biggest snares in a Christian's life, from soul-consuming greed to crushing debt. But it can also be a source of enormous blessing—provided we follow simple principles outlined in God's Word.

That's why Ken and I, hosts of the Faith Works podcast on Charisma Podcast Network, are sharing several important biblical principles so you, too, can experience the financial freedom God desires for you. We call these principles the Four Streams of Biblical Income, and we've seen incredible success when people apply them.

One woman dropped her debt from over $40,000 to under $5,000 simply by applying what we're teaching in this Faith Works episode.

Biblical Stream No. 1: Tithing

There's a spiritual law within tithing. When we give to God first, He gives back to us generously.

"Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this, says the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing, that there will not be room enough to receive it" (Mal. 3:10, MEV).

Now, this doesn't mean we should treat tithing like a vending machine. The right motivation for biblical tithing is actually obedience to God's Word. When done with the right motives, tithing is the connection to protection.
