

'They Cannot Do This': Pat Robertson Reacts to Daunte Wright Murder on 'The 700 Club'

(Editor's Note: The discussion on Daunte Wright begins at 9:06.)

"There's just no comparison."

Pat Robertson, host of The 700 Club echoes the sentiments of many following the tragic shooting of Daunte Wright in Minnesota in a recent episode of the show.

"If you can't tell the difference between the feel of these two things, it's crazy," Robertson exclaims as he holds fake replicas of a taser and a handgun in his hands.

"I am pro-police, folks," he continues. "I think we need the police, we need their service and they do a good job, but if they don't stop this onslaught, they cannot do this."

Watch the video that is going viral online, as the Derek Chauvin trial continues and Minnesotans protest Wright's murder at the hands of Officer Kim Potter, who will face prosecution on Sunday. {eo}
