

This Action Is Habitual for Spiritually Happy Men

Every “on-fire” Christian would love to be tithing. We all know men who are, and we’d love to be more like them—if for no other reason than to be as spiritually happy as they are.

But how? Is generosity something you can work toward, something you receive by grace, or does it boil down to DNA?

Join us as we answer these questions, see what happens to generous men, and offer a few suggestions to act out your instinct to be generous. It’s going to be a great day!

The Big Idea: Have you ever known a spiritually unhappy man who tithes?

Click here to watch or listen to the Bible study. {eo}

Patrick Morley is the founder of Man in the Mirror Ministries. For the original article, visit here.