

This Is the Best Question Atheists Have for Believers

Conservative pundit Matt Walsh is not known for his subtlety. In a recent post, Walsh addressed the question: Why does God hide from us?

Right now, we live in a time where it might seem easy to look around and “wonder why God remains hidden,” Walsh notes.

“It is easy to use God’s hiddenness, His invisibility, as an argument against His existence. It is not a bad argument, either. Indeed, it would seem that a loving and all-powerful God would manifest Himself clearly and unmistakably to His creation, especially when He notices that secularism is infecting the whole world like a virus.” {eoa}
