

This Is The Most Evil Reaction To Charlie Kirk's Assassination That I Have Seen

The video that I have to share with you today is absolutely chilling. In the aftermath of Charlie Kirk's assassination, I have been horrified by the thousands of celebration videos that have been posted all over social media. Sometimes I think that I don't even recognize this country anymore. For a lot of really sick people on the left, the death of Charlie Kirk is the greatest thing that has happened in the U.S. in a long time. If it was just a few deranged individuals that were feeling this way, it wouldn't be that big of a deal. But the truth is that there are vast numbers of people that are celebrating Charlie Kirk's death and can't resist posting about it on social media. Needless to say, that says a lot about the current state of our society.

I have viewed a lot of extremely sick celebration videos in recent days, but this one has got to be the worst of the worst.

There are a couple of important points that I wanted to make about this video.

First of all, I think that it is quite obvious who she is talking about when she mentions "two better candidates".

If you haven't figured it out yet, it is the president of the United States and the vice-president of the United States.

Secondly, there seems to be something very unnatural about her delivery.

She cackles demonically throughout the video, and I honestly wonder if someone else has control over her mental faculties at this point.

Needless to say, any rational person would not laugh at the thought of the president of the United States and the vice-president of the United States being dead.

Of course this woman is far from alone.

There are so many others that are reacting to Charlie Kirk's death in ways that can only be described as evil.

For example, a public school teacher in Toronto repeatedly showed footage of Charlie Kirk's assassination to his young students and told them that he deserved to die.

A public school teacher has been suspended after allegedly showing a video of Charlie Kirk's assassination to students as young as 10 in his class, authorities in Canada said.

The teacher also suggested that Kirk deserved to be killed, and gave the young students a speech about anti-fascism and transgender issues, according to a report.

"Several students from his class went home and complained to their parents, traumatized at witnessing the on-camera death, which they were forced to witness numerous times over," a source told the Toronto Sun after the shocking incident at a school in Toronto on Thursday.

How angry would you be if you were the parent of one of those children?

We have entered a new era of domestic terrorism in the United States, and every time another incident happens there will be vast hordes of crazed leftists cheering it on.

In an attempt to get to the source of the problem, the Trump administration has announced plans to go after leftist NGOs.

Angered in the wake of Charlie Kirk's assassination, Trump administration officials say they're planning to use "every resource" available across the federal government to target left-wing organizations they contend are promoting political violence.

Vice President JD Vance and Stephen Miller, deputy White House chief of staff, on Sept. 15 discussed plans to "go after" left-wing non-government organizations, or NGOs, they said support "doxxing" campaigns against conservatives, help orchestrate riots, publicize the addresses of political opponents and promote messages intended to create violence.

"We are going to channel all of the anger that we have over the organized campaign that led to this assassination to uproot and dismantle these terrorist networks," Miller said as he joined Vance on a livestream as the vice president hosted "The Charlie Kirk Show" to pay tribute to the late conservative activist.

It certainly appears that many of these NGOs have been involved in activities that are highly illegal.

And hopefully cracking down on them will help.

But for now, the violence continues.

In fact, we have learned that two Pakistani men tried to blow up a news van in Utah on Friday

Two men allegedly planted a bomb underneath a news van in Utah on Friday and tried to ignite it, sparking a massive evacuation and federal probe.

Adeeb Nasir, 58, and Adil Justice Ahme Nasir, 31, were each arrested Sunday when authorities turned up at their front door in Magna, Utah – less than an hour away from the college where famed conservative pundit Charlie Kirk was assassinated last Wednesday.

The pair is accused of hiding an incendiary device found underneath a news media vehicle parked next to an occupied building. The explosive had been lit but apparently malfunctioned, police said.

The reason why that particular news van was targeted was because it belonged to Fox 13 News Utah.

Fox 13 News Utah is owned by Scripps. Stations like Fox 13 are affiliated with the Fox network but are not directly part of the Fox News Channel, the pro-Trump cable news network.

The station confirmed the news about its vehicle on Sunday night and said, "FOX 13 News is working closely with law-enforcement and our risk management team, with the safety of our employees as our top priority."

Both national and local media outlets have stepped up security efforts in the wake of the Kirk assassination.

Fox News is not very conservative at all.

So if even Fox News is being targeted, that is extremely alarming.

A photo that was taken outside of the home of the two Pakistani men shows that they were hanging a large flag that asks if Trump is dead yet.

There were also anti-Trump flags hanging outside their home, including one that read TACO Trump (a leftist meme meaning Trump Always Chickens Out) and "Is He Dead Yet?" according to photos posted to social media by Daniel Greenfield of the David Horowitz Freedom Center.

This is the political environment that we live in today, and there are literally millions of people that think like this.

And leftists are committing acts of violence in western Europe too.

In fact, they just caused so much damage to Germany's power grid that it "may take until 2026 to fully make repairs."

Far left extremists are claiming responsibility for a major attack on a power supply hub providing power to southeast Berlin, which led to a blackout that left 50,000 people without power, the biggest blackout in Berlin since the Cold War.

The damage has been so severe that authorities are reporting it may take until 2026 to fully make repairs, according to Tagesspiegel.

A letter of responsibility was published on Indymedia, a website where many leftist groups publish such letters following attacks.

We have been repeatedly warned that an "internal revolution" started by radical leftists would be coming.

For a long time, many mocked the idea that the radical left had declared war on conservatives.

But nobody is laughing now.

The radical left is greatly celebrating the death of Charlie Kirk, and it appears that it is inevitable that they will soon be going after other high profile targets.
