

Three More Prophetic Words to Navigate Changes in 2023

Read time: 1 minute 44 seconds

People around the world use the changing of a new year as an opportunity for change in their life. Some may try and hit the gym to lose weight or build muscle, while others relocate in changing of career paths. But what do Christians do when the Lord is changing the season they are in? Here are three prophetic words to help guide believers through their upcoming seasons of change in 2023!

Rabbi Curt Landry: 3 Steps Into God's 2023 Prophetic Word, by Shelby Bowen

We sat down for an exclusive Charisma News interview with Rabbi Curt Landry who has felt a stirring from the Lord to share three ways you can start preparing yourself for what God has planned for you in the coming months.

In the interview Landry says emotional, spiritual and financial intelligence are key.

To read the full story click here.

Step Into New Church Wineskin for 2023 and Beyond, by Thomas Harry

"No one puts new wine in old wine skins or it will burst the skins" (Mark 2:22). The Lord has released a new wineskin for the church and it is a fundamental shift in church culture. It is a blueprint that is essential if the church is going to fulfil the Great Commission and indeed successfully navigate this new season, we are in.

To read the full story click here.

Prophetic Word: Do You Hear the Sound of Swift Change? By Hank Kunneman

Read this powerful prophecy by Pastor Hank Kunneman, given on Sunday, Nov. 27, 2022, at Lord of Hosts Church, where the Spirit of the Lord declared that we are in a prophetic season of sudden and swift change! Pay close attention to the weather elements and their abundance, which shall be signs of the hand of God bringing about change. Watch as this divine change affects governments of the earth and major court rulings.

To read the full story click here. {eo}

Bring Charisma magazine home with a subscription today!

James Lasher is Staff Writer for Charisma Media.