

Thugs Assault, Bully Peaceful Barrett Supporters in Washington, D.C.

What started as a respectful but impassioned show of support in front of the U.S. Supreme Court building in Washington, D.C. began to take an ominous turn as a group of angry thugs began to arrive and, ultimately, encircle the group.

Since the Senate Judiciary Committee hearing for justice nominee Amy Coney Barrett began, the coalition has peacefully displayed signs saying, "I'm With Her," "Women for Amy," and "I Am the Pro-Life Generation."

"We are here to support Judge Barrett," said a member of Students for Life.

But on a recent day, the group and their large pictures of babies in the womb, each with the name of an unborn child, became slowly overwhelmed by those holding signs ranging from "Trump Pence Out Now" to "The Future Is Female" to "Do Not Confirm Hypocrisy," as they became increasingly verbal.

"We simply want to let Amy know that we are here for her," said a woman who was becoming alarmed at the rising tone of the horde. There was no police protection in sight from the hundreds of angry, nasty joiners who descended on the peaceful, quiet and respectful women showing their love for Barrett.

Tension culminated when a group of thugs dressed in satanic outfits, with the satanic cross around their necks, assaulted the students—attempting to encircle the group, shout at speakers supporting Barrett and take away the signs.

As the numbers of the antifa-related thugs grew, they became more violent and finally took over the stage, pushing the remaining Barrett supporters out of the area.

The swearing, physical assaults and screaming were finally too much. The horde of evil overtook the forces of good and began a rally of spewing hate and filth.

As quoted by the bestselling author of God, Trump and COVID-19 Stephen Strang, "The thief does not come, except to steal and kill and destroy. I [Jesus] came that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

And: "Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your waist girded with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, having your feet fitted with the readiness of the gospel of peace" (Eph. 6:10-15).

The evil that overwhelmed the godly women who simply stood to support Barrett is an example of the forces preparing to take over America—if the election is lost. The 59 million believers who did not vote in 2016 need to join these women in standing by voting. The awaiting evil despises the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. {eoa}
