

To All Praying, Patriotic Citizens: Make America Great Again!

After Memorial Day, most of us embrace the start of summer. We're experiencing fresh optimism that it's time to put the COVID-19 crisis in the past and transition to where we left off three months ago: making God great in America again to reclaim the greatness for which America was ordained. It also means greater happiness and prosperity for us as praying, patriotic citizens.

Take five minutes to watch this video by cultural commentator and bestselling author Larry Tomczak. Get a quick overview of our heritage and how we became the most prosperous nation in the history of humanity!

Here's the deal: "Who knows if perhaps you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" (Esther 4:14c, BSB).
