

Todd White's Powerful Testimony of Deliverance From Darkness

Testimonies of how Christ saved, healed, delivered and restored us have the supernatural power to release faith in the hearer. That's why the great Psalmist declares, "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so" (Ps. 107:2, NASB).

And that's why the Word of God states in the book of Revelation that the saints overcame by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony (Rev. 12:11). Every child of God has a testimony, and we're called to steward these stories of encounter and share them with a world that desperately needs Jesus.

You might think that sharing your testimony and sharing the gospel with unbelievers is the job of the evangelist only. This is an enormous misconception which has given timid believers an excuse not to step out of their comfort zones and share the good news.

The role of evangelists isn't to be the sole source of evangelism in the world, but they are to equip the church to preach and release the kingdom daily. On top of that, we shouldn't put evangelism in a box by thinking it only happens at large crusades, church services, conferences and mission trips.

On the contrary, we are to represent Jesus wherever we go: the grocery store, movies, restaurants and so forth. What many believers view as radical, God views as normative Christianity.

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast, Michael Lombardo speaks with Todd White about his powerful testimony of being delivered from all kinds darkness and catapulted into a fiery life of living for Jesus. Since then, he's preached everywhere he goes in the love and power of the Spirit. He's seen countless people healed on the spot, given words of knowledge and prophetic words to strangers and operates in the love of God in a pure way that points people to Jesus.

At the end of the episode, Todd gets accurate words of knowledge over Michael Lombardo and his wife, Selina. {eo}
