

Toddler's Precious Bedtime Prayers Caught on Camera Go Viral

A South Carolina couple rushed to get their daughter to bed Sunday so they could get back to cheering on the Panthers in the NFC championship game.

They neglected to say bedtime prayers, but their daughter didn't forget.

Kathryn and Caleb Whitt heard her praying on her own on the baby monitor.

They recorded the moment and shared the two-minute prayer online.

Mom was shocked as her toddler named everyone she wanted to pray for—without any help.
