Did a Supernatural Spirit of Murder Take Down JFK?

For decades, the question of who was truly behind the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has loomed over American history like a dark cloud. The official narrative has never quite satisfied those who saw through the inconsistencies, and now, new evidence has emerged that could finally bring clarity to one of the greatest political crimes in history.

Leaked audio, never before heard by the public, reveals Clifton C. Carter—former Executive Director of the Democratic National Committee and a close confidant of Lyndon Baines Johnson—admitting that LBJ orchestrated the assassination of JFK. The recording, released exclusively by Alex Jones on InfoWars, captures Carter confessing to businessman and political insider Billie Sol Estes that Johnson hired Mac Wallace to carry out the hit. According to Carter, he disagreed with Johnson's decision but admitted that LBJ believed himself to be the savior of the common man.

This revelation aligns with the work of political operative and author Roger Stone, whose bestselling book, "The Man Who Killed Kennedy: The Case Against LBJ," laid out an alarming case implicating the former president. While many dismissed such claims as conspiracy theory, the weight of evidence continues to mount. And now, President Donald Trump has announced that his administration will declassify all government files related to the JFK assassination, a move that could shake the foundations of American political history.

PRAY: Si Robertson Hospitalized as Family Sees New Changes

Pray for the Robertson family after Si Robertson was hospitalized from an accident that happened during a hunting trip.

When the hunting trip concluded, Robertson got in a flurry to get out of the boat quickly, which caused him to fall, landing on his oxygen machine. While reports came out that Si denied his injuries, a few days later, he decided to go to the emergency room.

As Country Music Family noted, the “Duck Dynasty” star “was in an enormous amount of pain and had seriously low oxygen numbers.” This led to Robertson’s wife and caretakers to bring him to a walk-in clinic, which then immediately referred him to the hospital.

Franklin Graham Responds to Woke Bishop’s Trump Rebuke

Reverend Franklin Graham criticized the statements of the leader of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington, Bishop Mariann Budde.

Graham told Newsmax that Budde was “wrong” to politicize the inaugural prayer service. “That was really a national forum, a national stage pulpit that she was standing in. And for her to use that for her own political agenda was wrong,” he said.

Discussing the bishop’s statements on immigration and LGBTQ children, Graham said that while “people suffered a lot to come here illegally,” illegal immigrants “need to go back and come in legally.

Wild Weather, AI Alarms and Prophecy: What It All Means

In an era marked by upheaval and uncertainty, prophetic voices are speaking louder than ever. Joseph Z, a contemporary prophetic figure, offers a perspective on current events that weaves together divine warnings, societal shifts and spiritual responsibilities. From unseasonable snow in Florida to advancements in artificial intelligence, Z's insights urge believers to stay vigilant and spiritually grounded in the face of growing challenges.

Snow in Florida and Weather Manipulation

Let's start with what's making waves—snow in Florida. Yes, you read that right. According to Z, this unusual weather is part of a larger, divine narrative. "What you're seeing with the crazy weather... it is all indeed a mechanization by elites trying to stand their ground," he says. Strange weather occurrences, from Florida's snow to fires and earthquakes, are described as warnings. These events, he believes, fulfill prophecies spoken years prior.

Another Megachurch Pastor Steps Down for Unbelievable Reason

Another megachurch pastor is stepping down from his role, but not for a reason you may think.

Pastor Jon Weece of Southland Christian Church in Lexington, Kentucky, announced to his congregation that he will be stepping down in January 2026 with the intention of becoming a regular member of the church.

As the Christian Post reported, Weece has been serving with Southland since 2000, starting first as a teaching pastor before becoming the lead three years later. While some may question why he would choose to do so, Weece says his decision has nothing to do with moral standing, but rather everything to do with the emotional toll he's seen ministers go through.

Birth Pangs of the Last Days: Prophecy Amid Growing Disasters

As California battles multiple wildfires with devastating consequences, prophetic insights from Joseph Z provide a thought-provoking perspective on these extreme natural disasters.

The state is currently grappling with several fires, including the 10,000-acre Hughes Fire, which is 36% contained, and new blazes such as the Border 2 Fire in San Diego, spanning 4,250 acres and prompting evacuations. As reported by the BBC, these fires come after weeks of destruction, with the Palisades and Eaton fires alone scorching over 37,000 acres and claiming at least 28 lives.

Z has long warned of the rise of extreme weather events. "For several years, the Spirit of the Lord has revealed to me that we would experience global extreme weather," he shares. These raging fires, he believes, are part of a broader prophetic picture.
