'Losing Its Soul'? Brian Houston Shares News of Hillsong's Dismissal of Wife, Bobbie

The status of Bobbie Houston, the long-time co-pastor and co-founder of Hillsong, the troubled global megachurch based in Australia, is uncertain after the church's board and her husband, the church's former head pastor Brian Houston, traded feuding online messages this week.

Brian Houston, who co-founded Hillsong with his wife in Australia in 1983, resigned from his position as global senior pastor on March 21, less than a week after the board released a statement revealing he had sent inappropriate text messages to a staff member and spent time in a woman's hotel room.

No formal announcement has been made regarding Bobbie Houston's role with the church.

Chuck Pierce, who has a strong track record in prophetic ministry, predicted years ago that China would become a world menace. Pierce now has very disturbing news about the future of the United States as we know it.

the Future God Has for You.

But it's his prophetic word that God imparted to him 14 years ago that has a lot of people in the kingdom buzzing. In a recent videocast with Cindy Jacobs and Mike Jacobs of Generals International, Pierce prophesied that the United States will soon undergo a major split, with less than half of the 50 states coming together under one flag.
