Deliverance Ministers: Witchcraft Exists in the Prophetic and the Apostolic Too

Don’t think there’s witchcraft in the church today? Then you might want to reconsider that position, say Pastors Mike Signorelli, Isaiah Saldivar and Alexander Pagani.

A traveling pastor who attends Lifesong Church in Stockton, California and whose ministry reaches between 6 to 8 million people per week, Saldivar says it’s definitely out there, and that “we have to call out heretical teachings and bad doctrine” that can lead people to hell.

In this video teaching, Saldivar, Pagani and Signorelli give a

The three deliverance ministers navigate the complex intersection between spirituality, religion and occult practices and shed light on controversial topics such as the Third Eye, Astral Projection, false prophetic words and more.

On a recent episode of Sid Roth's "It's Supernatural," Schneider explains to Roth his prophetic dream, one in which he and several other believers were fervently asking Jesus to return to earth:

Fulfillment of Prophecy Anticipated: Unblemished Red Heifers

for Temple Coming of Age

Last September, five red heifers arrived in Israel amid great fanfare, because some Jews and Gentiles believe red heifers are a key element leading to the building of the Third Jewish Temple.

The heifers are now in a secure, undisclosed location in Israel. Plans include moving them, sometime soon, to a visitor's center in Shiloh, where the tabernacle of the Lord once stood for nearly 400 years.

The book of Numbers explains that ashes of the red heifer are used to purify priests for their service in the Temple: {eoa}
