

Top of the Week: Televangelist Jesse Duplantis Accused of Heresy After Sermon on Isaiah 9:6

Read Time: 3 minutes, 20 seconds

Following are snippets of the top stories posted over the past week on . We invite you to visit the links to read the stories in full.

Televangelist Jesse Duplantis Accused of Heresy After your Sermon on Isaiah 9:6

A common verse used during the Christmas season is that of Isaiah 9:6, saying, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder. And His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace."

This verse is traditionally attributed to being a prophetic saying about the coming of Jesus Christ.

Yet this past Christmas season, televangelist Jesse Duplantis had another take on it.

The 'Undeniable' Proof of Where Jesus Miraculously Healed a Blind Man

The Pool of Siloam, where Jesus healed a blind man and whom Pastor John Hagee says is one of the most inspiring stories of the Bible, will open soon to the public and will put on display yet another affirmation of the validity of Holy Scripture.

Just prior to the New Year, the Israel Antiquities Authority, the Israel National Parks Authority and the City of David Foundation announced that the site will be open to the public in the near future for the first time in more than 2,000 years, Fox News Digital reported. The Pool of Siloam is a site cherished by both Christians and Jews, and religious leaders, including some Christians, are touting it as indisputable evidence that God's Word is indeed true.

"When I think of this news, I think of another phrase from the Hebrew Bible, 'My ears have heard of you, but now my eyes have seen you,'" Rev. Johnnie Moore, president of the Congress of Christian Leaders, told Fox News Digital.

'Largest Satanic Gathering in History' Set for Boston in April

The Satanic Temple (TST) is advertising its second convention to be held in Boston, Massachusetts this spring as the "largest Satanic gathering in history."

The convention known as "SatanCon 2023" will be held on April 28-30, and is being promoted as "a weekend of blasphemy and remembrance in Boston."

The theme of the convention is "Hexennacht in Boston" or "Witches Night," an ancient German holiday that occurs annually on April 30.

Top Prophetic Voices Share What's Coming in 2023

We are clearly living in volatile times and the uncertainty of what is around the corner can leave you uneasy. We sat down with the top prophetic voices in this generation to hear what God put on their hearts for this next year and how the body of Christ can step in to it.

Here is what they had to say:

Prophet Chuck Pierce

Are you worried about the future? Does inflation, food shortages and gas prices keep you up at night? Prophet Chuck Pierce says God has given us authority and has put us in strategic places that give us access to everything we need. However, Pierce says we must think like Joseph in the Bible so that we may survive in the lean times. To hear in depth, practical tips on preparing for this next season click here.

E0Y2022: Massive End-of-Year Event Unites Believers in the Power of the Holy Spirit

Like the disciples of Jesus gathered in an upper room on Pentecost, believers spanning several generations and continents welcomed the Holy Spirit on New Year's Eve in Dallas, Texas, with the goal of "encountering God and His glory." E0Y2022 united worship and ministry leaders from Dallas-area churches, including UPPERRROOM, as well as Spirit-filled ministries Jesus Image and Pastor Michael Koulianos, Circuit Riders, Black Voices Movement, Gen Z For Jesus and leader Brian Barcelona.

From Gen Z to Millennials to a woman recognized for her relationship with Jesus over five decades, worshippers from Central and South Americas, Europe, Australia, India and the United States responded to the Holy Spirit's invitation to UPPERRROOM Dallas three days before 2023.

For almost seven hours on New Year's Eve, worship, teaching, prayer and proclamation of the gospel marked the ending of 2022. An invitation to receive Jesus and the baptism in the Holy Spirit highlighted the final night of the massive gathering. {eoa}

Bring "Charisma" magazine home with a subscription today!