

Tragic House Fire Kills Pastor, 2 Kids After He Tried to Save Their Lives

"Last night around midnight, my brother Mark Robinette lost his life trying to save the lives of two of his children. A fire broke out in the house," Robinett began. "Mark was able to get Andrea and two children who were sleeping upstairs out of the house to safety, but when he tried to rescue the other two children who were still in their bedrooms upstairs, they all perished in the fire. Please keep his wife Andrea Trapani Robinette and the children in your prayers."

Liam is remembered as a sweet boy who "everyone loved" and Gideon was getting ready to go college with aspirations of being a pastor like his father, WBNS-TV reported.

"You don't think there are perfect kids but they would come close as you could find," Trapani said.

A vigil was organized for the family Tuesday evening and two GoFundMe pages have been started for the family.
