

‘Trump Aftershock’ Author Stephen E. Strang: Kavanaugh Is a Strong Christian, Strong Constitutionalist

Brett Kavanaugh took an important step closer to his seat on the U.S. Supreme Court this afternoon, with the confirmation from the Senate Judiciary Committee. A full Senate vote could happen next week.

Stephen E. Strang has interviewed countless evangelical and charismatic leaders over his 40-plus-year career and is the best-selling author of God and Donald Trump. His newest book, Trump Aftershock, will be released Nov. 6. Strang released the following statement on the Kavanaugh vote today.

“I believe God answered prayer and overcame the evil intentions of those Democrats who hurled unsubstantiated accusations at Brett Kavanaugh,” Strang said. “It’s significant that he is a strong Christian who swore he is innocent not only to the civil authorities under oath, but to God. Yet he was humble enough to pray for his accuser. I believe he will be a strong constitutionalist, which is exactly what we need on the Supreme Court.”

The CEO and founder of Charisma Media, Strang was voted by Time magazine as one of the most influential evangelicals in America. He has traveled to more than 50 countries, has interviewed four U.S. presidents and has been featured on Fox News, CNN, MSNBC, CBN, Dr. James Dobson’s “Family Talk” and The Daily Caller.

Trump Aftershock is published by FrontLine, an imprint of Charisma House, which has published books that challenge, encourage, teach and equip Christians, including 14 New York Times best-sellers.
