

Trump Campaign Launches Voter Assistance Hotline

Having trouble voting? See evidence of voter fraud? We've got a phone number for you.

Donald Trump has said if he loses the 2016 presidential election, he wants to lose it fair and square. To that end, his campaign launched a National Voter Assistance Hotline.

It issued the following statement to supporters Monday night:

Thank you again for supporting Donald Trump for President. Just a reminder that if you encounter any problems casting a ballot or if you witness any disruptions at a polling location please call our Voter Assistance Hotline at (844) 332-2016. You can also report any of these incidents on-line at:
