

Two Visions Warn American Believers Not to Commit Spiritual Treason

The new year is on the horizon, and many hearts across the earth remain unsettled as the decade of the roaring 2020s has touched every part of the globe.

Few, if anyone, can say that they have not been impacted at some level by the COVID crisis. It is still unclear what the days ahead will reveal concerning the elections and the next presidency, if there will be a transition of power and potential unrest on the soil of America.

Confusion has infiltrated this great nation, but God still owns the deed to this planet. Regardless of how things may play out based on broken agreements and violations of the U.S. Constitution, which is the covenant between God and America, I heard the Holy Spirit say this week, "The most powerful agreement on the planet is still the blood covenant in the life of every believer. I will never break My covenant with My people, and I expect My people to not break it with Me."

I've had two open visions since election night that show how the body of Christ needs to lean into God and not government for protection. We have a weaponized blood covenant in Christ Jesus. Every time the flesh of Jesus was split open from the whipping post to the cross of Calvary, God was creating His covenant by arming His people with the blood of Jesus as the greatest life source to use in destroying the power of sin and death.

Although I only know in part, I have a spiritual obligation to share them. 1 Corinthians 13:9 says, "For we know in part, and we prophesy in part."

Vision 1: I saw President Donald J. Trump in a black suit with a red tie, kneeling down in prayer at his desk in the Oval Office. While kneeling, he put his hands over his ears and said, "American people, prepare for the bombshell."

Vision 2: I saw President Trump, once again in a black suit with a red tie, sitting at his desk in the Oval Office. He had access to history books on America that revealed how great leaders responded in the midst of chaos. I saw him studying the history books like a playbook for his next move. He was studying the American Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Civil War, World War I, World War II and the attack on Pearl Harbor. I heard the Holy Spirit say: "Treason will be the reason for the next season in America!"

God is looking for people who will not commit spiritual treason against the blood covenant of Christ Jesus. We have a weaponized agreement in Christ that is marked by the genetic code of heaven that can destroy the works of the devil.

Do not fear anything that is coming in this nation, for the law of the Spirit of life has set you free from the law of sin and death. The blood covenant in Christ Jesus is so powerful that even death is powerless to stop us from entering into a better place called heaven. If the government breaks covenant with God, will you stay true to the blood covenant that is in Christ Jesus? {eoa}
