

Understanding Demons and the Ranks of Hell

When it comes to spiritual warfare, evangelist David Diga Hernandez says believers are not to take it lightly.

While God ultimately rules all things and we should not fear demonic things, Hernandez says that, make no mistake, demonic beings are powerful and we are not to be frivolous in our approach to the battle.

“We are to approach spiritual warfare filled with the Holy Spirit,” Hernandez says. “Approach it with reverence. You have the power over every demonic being that would try to attack you. But demonic beings certainly dwell on the earth and they do have influence.”

In this video, Hernandez says Scripture gives very clear insight into the structures and ranks in hell. Watch for keen insight as to what believers need to be leery of. {eoa}

David Diga Hernandez is author of 25 Truths About Demons and Spiritual Warfare, an evangelist, healing minister and host of Encounter TV. His evangelistic healing ministry is marked by a distinct presence of the Holy Spirit. A rising voice of healing, Hernandez is a unique and emerging spiritual leader, called to take God's saving and healing power to this generation.