

Unexpected Twist: Sanctus Real to Headline Tour After Newsboys Exit

After issues arose between Newsboys and their Canadian promoter, Faith Live, the band's Canada tour was canceled. Now, Faith Live has announced that Sanctus Real is to replace Newsboys in what is called the "Being Faithful Tour."

Faith Live made the announcement of the change on Facebook, writing:

We know the recent changes around the Newsboys tour have been difficult. After prayerful consideration, we chose obedience over comfort and stepped away from that partnership—trusting God to lead the way.

We're honored to announce Sanctus Real will now be joining the tour. This isn't just a replacement—it's a calling. Their heart for worship, honesty, and ministry is exactly what this moment needs.

Faith Live also promised that ticket holders will be given a $500 for a hotel savings card, tickets used as a future credit and complete refunds for those in Saskatoon and Toronto.
