

Unveiling a Mystery Hidden in Scripture You've Probably Never Heard Before

The Bible is a supernatural book. When you read it, the author is present, and He is longing to make Himself known through every chapter and verse. From Genesis to Revelation, Jesus is infused in the text, and those who have eyes to see will see Him. Those who have ears to hear will hear Him. Michael Lombardo, host of Awaken Podcast, states, "One thing I love about the Scriptures is that you can read them every day of your life until you see Jesus face to face, and you'll always glean fresh revelation and insight, even from the same passages."

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast, Michael dives into a mystery hidden in Scripture that we're sure you've never heard before, at least not in the way it's presented here. As born-again, Spirit-filled believers, our hearts yearn to know Jesus more. We all long to know Him with all of our heart, mind, soul and strength. Honestly, the best way to do that is by spending time at His feet in intimacy, listening to His holy words. As you do, you'll capture glimpses and even full-blown pictures of His perfect work and His holy and glorious nature and plans.

Michael, in line with the season, breaks down verses in John 20 about the Resurrection of Christ regarding the new creation and how Jesus relates to His bride, the church. Don't miss out on this week's episode of Awaken Podcast to receive revelation and impartation that will transform your life forever.
