

'War Room's' Priscilla Shire on the Power of Prayer

The faith-based film War Room continues to win the battle at the box office, and its creators, the Kendrick brothers, are defying their critics at every turn.

Alex and Stephen Kendrick cast a Bible teacher, Priscilla Shirer, in the leading role for the film about the power of prayer.

Shirer is the daughter of Pastor Tony Evans and the founder of Go Beyond Ministries.

In her very first acting role, Shirer plays the character Elizabeth Jordan. Jordan is a wife and mother who learns the power of prayer as she watches her family fall apart.
