

WATCH: 9-Year-Old Goes Viral on Social Media for Jaw-Dropping Worship Set

Read Time: 1 minute 36 seconds

A 9-year-old boy has gone viral on social media—and you may be surprised why. Videos of John Miles Brockman have circulated across TikTok and Instagram showcasing his incredible drumming skills during his local church's worship set.

Nowadays in our world when people go viral on social media it's usually not for the right reasons. John, the 9-year-old drummer has already sent a message to Christians worldwide that as you follow your passions, you never know where God will take you.

@johnmilesbrockman Let's Go Crazy! #johnmilesbrockman #drum #drums #drummer #kiddrummer #worshipdrummer #vicfirth #vicfirthsticks #funkydrummer #zildjian #churchdrummer #dwdrums #worship #animalmuppet 🎵 original sound – John Miles Brockman

On John's Instagram page the bio reads, "My name is John Miles and I am nine years old! I love Jesus, my family and drums! (Account managed by parents.)"

It's no surprise that John is extremely talented and passionate about playing the drums. He plays numerous worship songs including "I Thank God," "Gratitude" and "Little Drummer Boy." You can see the congregation sitting in awe watching the young boy worship God with his talents.