

WATCH: By Building the Hadron Collider, Are Scientists Opening a Wormhole for Demons?

Author Tom Horn sat down with Jim Bakker to discuss the consequences of the CERN Hadron Collider.

“(Scientists) also believe there are parallel realities around us, other dimensions, and there could be other intelligence there, another thing we Christians already know,” Horn says. “However, there’s a reason God put them on the other side of that veil.”

Horn goes on to discuss the supernatural implications of this scientific advancement.
