

WATCH: Darren Wilson Releases Full 'Holy Ghost' Trailer That Will Give You Goosebumps

Wanderlust has released the full trailer today for their new, highly anticipated film, Holy Ghost. The new trailer gives the biggest look yet at the next installment from filmmaker Darren Wilson.

Watch that trailer below:

"One of my goals in making this movie," says Director Darren Wilson, "was to separate it artistically as much as possible from my previous films (Finger of God, Furious Love, Father of Lights) while still holding onto the spirit of those movies. Those films featured my narrative as more of a curious everyman, wondering about everything he sees. This movie, well, let's just say that I've finally made up my mind."

"I think this is the first time one of our trailers has truly captured the feel of the movie, so I'm excited for people to see it," continues Wilson. "This whole movie is just electric from start to finish, and hopefully the trailer conveys that we're dealing with a lot of big, deep stuff in this movie."

Financed through the popular crowd funding platform Kickstarter, Holy Ghost became the No. 1 most-funded Christian movie in Kickstarter history. As part of that campaign, Wilson and his team have brought their nearly 2,500 backers with them for the entire movie-making process, resulting in over 100 separate updates from film shoots around the world.
