

WATCH: Gov. Bobby Jindal Grilled for 'Our God Wins' Proclamation

At "The Response: Louisiana," Gov. Bobby Jindal stepped away from politics and promoted Christianity and revival, saying America needs more than a new president to save it.

"We can't just elect a candidate to fix what ails our country. ... We need a spiritual revival to fix what ails our country."

Later, though, Jindal went on ABC News with George Stephanopoulos to reiterate that no matter what is happening in the world, we, as Christians, already know what will happen in the end: "Our God wins."

Watch the video to see how Jindal responds when Stephanopoulos calls him out.
