

WATCH: IHOPKC's Mike Bickle Rejoices in 'Love Wins' Prophecy

When people across America declared, "Love Wins!" on June 26, they were prophesying, International House of Prayer Director Mike Bickle says.

"I am grieved that the highest court in our nation defied the authority of God's Word," Bickle says. "Yet, I am filled with hope that the Lord will use what the enemy meant for evil to turn around for remarkable good. We must see what God's Word says about the coming crisis and yet see God's glory in the crisis so that we are spiritually prepared to trust the Lord's leadership and to love well in all that is coming."

And when supporters of gay marriage started chanting that "Love wins!" they got it right.

How so? Watch this video to see!