

WATCH: John Hagee: Either God Will Judge America or Apologize to Sodom and Gomorrah

“the outcry against its people has grown great before the presence of the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to destroy it” (Gen. 19:13).

So begins Genesis 19. God was so enraged by the atrocities of the infamous cities that He sent His angels to destroy them and save only the righteous.

Pastor and author John Hagee says America has reached the same defining moment now that the Supreme Court ruling has overturned bans on gay marriages.

And if biblical precedent is considered, we might want to grab our families, run for the hills and never look back.

Check it out.
