

Watch Kavanaugh Hearing Live

Thursday morning, the nation's focus will be riveted on Washington, D.C., as Christine Blasey Ford airs her allegation of sexual assault against Judge Brett Kavanaugh, President Trump's nominee for a vacant position on the Supreme Court of the United States.

In a Senate hearing, Kavanaugh will defend himself against these allegations. Each senator will get five minutes to ask questions and can hand that duty off to another senator. Republicans have hired Arizona sex crimes prosecutor Rachel Mitchell to ask questions on their behalf.
