

WATCH: Obama's Former Pastor Jeremiah Wright Proclaims the Unthinkable at Million Man March

Rev. Jeremiah Wright stormed the Capitol with thousands during the Nation of Islam's Justice or Else march.

During his remarks, the pastor greeted the gathered with "salaam alaikum," a traditional Muslim salutation.

And then he embarked on international politics—pleading the case for Palestinians over Israelis, telling attendees, "Please remember, Jesus was a Palestinian."

Watch the video to see what else he said.
