

WATCH: Prophet Tim Sheets Says Transformation is On Its Way to America

Read Time: 2 Minutes 11 Seconds

Radical changes in government and culture, revival, awakening and transformation—along with a harvest that’s now ripe for reaping—is on its way to America, says apostle and Oasis Church Pastor Tim Sheets.

Standing near the White House in Washington D.C. this week, Sheets delivered a prophetic word that promises multiple victories and outpourings of the Holy Spirit if God’s people will do one key thing.

“Keep praying,” says Sheets. “We’re about to win big victories in Jesus’ name.”

“This is another prophetic word and, as we hear it, we pray it. Let it become a prayer focus for our times,” says Sheets, who further prophesied the body of Christ is moving into a supernatural moment.

Change is coming to the White House, the nation’s capital, state capitals and culture,” Sheet says in a recorded video titled “God is Our Option” posted to YouTube on Thursday.

Greater levels of authority and boldness are coming to the body of Christ as King Jesus and the Holy Spirit reveal more of their identity and God’s strategies for this season, according to the prophetic word.

“They did not leave heaven to be beaten by a fallen, reprobate cherub. They did not surrender their kingdom to the government of man. They did not come to take orders from feckless kings, governors, potentates, presidents, congressmen and women, senators, prime ministers, tribal chiefs, mayors, city councils, school boards, tenured professors or political parties," Sheets prophesies.

"The Lord says to His ekklesia, 'Stop looking at your options. I am your option. Not going to be. Not Was. I am. I am your map. I am your guide.

"America and this city (Washington D.C.), this government, this administration will now hear the deep-throated roar of the lion king Himself, roaring 'this is My territory. This is My pride. This is My nation. This is My world. America is My nation. I birthed it. I made covenant with it. And I will not lose it,'" says the Lord.

Salvation, miracles, deliverance are coming, too. "I'm not done with Muslims. I'm not done with Hindus. I'm not done with penetrating the nations with the gospel of my kingdom," Sheets prophesied.

"I'm not finished with the kingdom of God in the United States of America. America will be saved. My church isn't done when the government says it's done. My church isn't done when the president says its done. It's not done when the media says it's done or professors or the IRS or the FBI or Supreme Court or hireling shepherds or governors," Sheets prophesied.

Here is more of the prophecy Sheets delivered with the Washington Monument in view. {eo}

Bring Charisma magazine home with a subscription today!

Steve Rees is a former general assignment reporter who, with one other journalist, first wrote about the national men's movement Promise Keepers from his home in Colorado. Rees and Promise Keepers founder Bill McCartney attended the Boulder Vineyard. Today Rees writes in his free time.