

Kim Clement's Prophetic Words Ring True After Manchester

Following President Donald Trump's visit to Jerusalem and the terrorist attack in Manchester, Pastor Mike Faccuito and Sunil Isaac of House of Destiny released a prophetic alert Thursday that provides a "king perspective, a prophetic perspective" on the leading news of the day.

During the introduction, Isaac told the audience "there is hope, there is reason to dream again," and shared words Kim Clement released that are applicable to today. He reminded them of 1 Tim. 1:18-20 in which Paul commanded Timothy to remember the prophets so that he might "fight the good fight."

He also recounted prophecy shared by Clement specifically on March 22, 2015, while in England. There, he said that if God hears the sound of unity, He will "destroy the spirit of Islam" that is coming against the U.K., and that for every head and life that was taken, God would replace it with "100,000 that will rise up and speak the word, 'Yeshua.'"

Isaac added a third word from Clement:

"They watch and they wonder, 'Will the spirits of the prophets once again fill the children of this generation?' God says, 'Yes!'"

The extra-long, 47-minute Codebreakers segment begins at the 27-minute mark. In it, Isaac dissects some of the "amazing prophetic signs" we have seen in the news lately. Click here to watch the entire broadcast. {eoa}